

January 16, 1916

MRS. ELIZABETH RAPP

Mrs. Elizabeth Rapp, mother of Julius Rapp and Frank Rapp of Groton, died at her home in Dickenson, N. D., on Friday last, aged seventy-six years. The body was brought to Groton for interment in Groton Union Cemetery, where other departed members of her family are buried.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Catholic Church, Father Amerault of Andover, officiating. She is survived by six children, twenty six grandchildren and one great grand child.

Mrs. Rapp was a pioneer resident of this locality, living southwest of Groton, but for the past twelve years or longer, she had made her home with her son George at Dickenson, N. D., where he is employed as a locomotive engineer on the Northern Pacific.